Acina-IZC Newark International Twirler Does Not Think Players Are Right-Signs Contract With New York Americans.

New York, Feb. 1.—The New York American League club announced today that it had received the signed contract of Jack Enright, a young college pitcher who played with the Newark Internationals last season. In announcing the signing of Enright the club made public a letter from the player to President David Fults of the Players Fraternity, in which he asks the latter to accept his resignation from the fraternity. Enright wrote:

Visitors to Hot Springs will have the opportunity of seeing the same teams that battled so heroleally last year for the world's championship in a series of games during the spring training season, for the conditioning of players of both the Brooklyn National League club and the Boston Americans, the former winners of the pennant in their league and the latter world's champions, will be done in this city.

Charles Ebbets, president of the Brooklyn club, has been there and has concluded negotiations that will bring the entire acam to "The Valley of Vapors" this spring. The Superbas will not lack for adequate quarters. S. E. Dillon, general manager of the Public Utilities, controlling the ball grounds in Whittington Park, tendered Mr. Ebbets the use of the diamond where for sixteen years the Pittsburg Pirates have walloped the horsehide during spring training. Furthermore, the assurance was given the head of the Brooklyn club that none of the players would have cause to complain and would when this work was completed be as fine a diamond and field as are to be found anywhere in the Southland.

Mr. Ebbets stated that Jack Coombs, dean of the Superbas' pitching staff, will head a delegation of pitchers and catchers to the Spa the early part of March, and that the remainder of the team will come a few days later. Opposite the grounds the Brooklyn club will use is another field, which in all probability will be occupied by Jack Hendricks' Indianapolis team. Hendricks is at present corresponding with local hotels for accommodations, and the same arrangement made with the the same arrangement made with the Superbas will also hold good for the Indians in the event Hendricks de-cides to bring them here, which, from letters received, it is believed he will
